the 1973 oil crisis forced the american automotive industry into a period of dramatic change marked by stiff foreign competition tougher product regulations and suddenly altered consumer demand with gas prices soaring and the economy in a veritable tailspin muscle cars and the massive need for speed engines of the late 60s were out and fuel efficient compacts were in by 1980 american manufacturers were churning out some of the most feature laden yet smallest and most fuel efficient cars they had ever built this exhaustive reference work details every model from each of the major american manufacturers from model years 1973 through 1980 including various captive imports e.g. dodge's colt built by mitsubishi within each model year it reports on each manufacturer's significant news and details every model offered its specifications powertrain offerings prices standard features major options and production figures among other facts the work is heavily illustrated with approximately 1 300 photographs this book explores ways in which common metaphors can play a detrimental role in everyday life how they can grow in outsized importance to dominate their respective terrains and push out alternative perspectives and how forms of resistance might act to contain their dominance the volume begins by unpacking the dynamics of metaphors their power and influence and the ways in which they are bolstered by other rhetorical devices adams draws on four case studies to illustrate their destructive impact when they eclipse other points of view the metaphor of mental illness the metaphor of free flowing markets the metaphor of the mind as a mirror and the metaphor of men as naturally superior taken together these examples prompt further reflection on the beneficiaries of these monster metaphors and how they promote such metaphors to serve their own interests but also on ways forward for challenging their dominance strategies for preventing their rise and ways of creating space for alternatives this book will be of interest to scholars interested in the study of metaphor across such fields as linguistics rhetoric and media studies
